Clause No. 5.6.4. xxviii removed

3. ANNEXURE –V: CHECK LIST FOR TECHNICAL BID (Page No.71): is amended as below:

Checklist table row no. 12 is omitted

4. SECTION-IV: SCOPE OF WORK clause 1 GENERAL DESCRIPTION (Page No.43): is amended as below:

1. GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

Jaipur Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd. [hereinafter to be referred to as JVVNL] invites offers from competent agencies for entering into the work of “TO ESTABLISH COLLECTION CENTERS AND OPERATE COMPUTERIZED CASH COLLECTION SYSTEM FOR ENERGY BILLS IN JAIPUR CITY” to facilitate its consumer to deposit their energy bill on the 58 centres across Jaipur city, so as to improve consumer satisfaction & cash flows.

The collection centre shall function in either of the two modes:

- (i) Bill deposition for JVVNL consumers exclusively
- (ii) Bill deposition for JVVNL consumers along with other services of e-Mitra like telephone, PHED etc.

JVVNL shall decide about either of these modes and the agency shall have to make suitable arrangements for the same. If option no. (ii) of above is selected, the following conditions will apply:

- (a) The agency shall deploy separate computer/UPS and operator dedicatedly for JVVNL bill deposition only besides another operator and system for services of e-Mitra.
- (b) Any permission from DoIT or government shall have to be arranged by the vendor, and JVVNL shall not involve itself into this exercise.
- (c) One window for cash collection is already available at all centres. However, any civil work required towards creating second window shall be done by JVVNL.
- (d) There may be few centres where creating second window may not be possible due to space constraints, at such locations only exclusive counter for JVVNL shall operate. At all other places centres will have dual services.
- (e) Bill collection charges for bills deposited at any center shall be paid as per charges of the mode of service.

- (f) No additional payment shall be made towards set up of additional infrastructure for e-Mitra services.
- (g) The agency shall ensure quality services to JVVNL consumers.
- (h) At every dual service centre, the agency shall make adequate arrangements by deploying security person to manage public coming over to take e-Mitra services and shall ensure that convenience of JVVNL consumers are not affected by the crowd.
- (i) There is no commitment of minimum amount of quantity of bills deposited through these centres.

The agency shall deploy the requisite infrastructures at its own cost and JVVNL shall pay the charges on per bill basis. The cash collection application software shall be provided by JVVNL. However, if opted, the cash collection software service shall also be provided by the agency. The cash collection application shall be accessible over the LAN/WAN for the local users at the Sub-divisions/Divisions/Circles/Corporate level.

5. SECTION-I INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDER 6.8.6 Selection of lowest price offer (Page No. 16):
may read as below:

6.8.6 Selection of lowest price offer:

6.8.6.1 Price mention BOQ for Rs. Per bill for [item 2a] < [item 1a] & [item 2b] < [item 1b]

6.8.6.2 For selection of the lowest price offer, price of all the activities quoted in the financial bid in BoQ shall be calculated as per below formula and final price (Rs. per bill) shall be worked out:

$$\text{(Price for [item 1 a] + Price for [item 1 b])/2 * 1, 25,000 + \{(Price for [item 2 a] + Price for [item 2 b])/2 * 75,000+ Price for [item 3]) / 2, 00,000}$$

6.8.6.3 The loading in Rs. per bill shall be worked out from the price quoted under the head 'Optional – Software Service' by assuming a base of 2 lacs bills per month.

6.8.6.4 If the price arrived at as per the formula mentioned in clause 6.8.6.2 of this section is same for two bidders, then bidder with lowest value for ([item1a] + item3) considered as L1 bidder.

6.8.6.4 However the L1 rates as arrived after evaluation of the financial bid as per procedure outlined above need not be accepted by JVVNL outright.

6.8.6.5 Negotiations with the L1 bidder could be done for finalizing the rates at which the contract would be awarded to the agency.
